Official Diary

Friday, 14 September 1951

Discussed with Mr. Reber the DCI's desire that we arrange for intelligence support for the Coast Guard.

Discussed with Messrs. Dulles and Wisner the desirability of raising at an early Assistant Directors' meeting the "9.25" attitude experienced in dealing with matters of urgency. They agreed that this should be done.

[] raised the question of whether O/CD should detach courtesy copies of papers coming from JSPD and send the same to O/PC for action. I agreed with [] suggestion that all copies of such communications should be sent by O/CD directly to the Office of the DCI, further distribution to be determined there. I requested Mr. Andrews to issue appropriate instructions and he said that he would do so.
